19. Huawei has directly infringed and continues to directly infringe at least claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of the '948 Patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas, literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by or through making, testing, using, importing, offering for sale and/or selling its eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution, including without limitation, Huawei eSpace UC Solution V2.3 or equivalent, operating with eSpace Desktop or eSpace Mobile (HD), Huawei Service Servers, eSpace

Enhanced Communications Suite, eServer, MAA, Meeting MS, UM Server, Unified Gateway and/or other Huawei hardware or software used to enable Huawei's UC Solutions instant messaging and conference call functionality.

20. Huawei may have infringed the '948 Patent through other software utilizing the same or reasonably similar functionality, including other versions of instant message to voice conference initiation or implementations of the eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution. Uniloc reserves the right to discover and pursue all such additional infringement of the '948 Patent. For the avoidance of doubt, the Huawei eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution is identified for exemplary purposes and in no way limits the discovery and infringement allegations against Huawei concerning other hardware/software that incorporated the same or reasonably similar instant messaging and conference call functionality.

21. Huawei has indirectly infringed and continues to indirectly infringe at least Claims 1 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of the '948 Patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, actively inducing the using, offering for sale selling, or importation of at least Huawei's eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution. Huawei's enterprise customers who purchase systems and components thereof and operate such systems and components in accordance with Huawei's instructions directly infringe one or more of the above identified claims of the '948 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C § 271.

22. Huawei instructs its customers in the use of the eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution through live and web demonstrations, training videos, brochures and administration, maintenance, installation and user guides, such as those located at the following:

Huawei is thereby liable for infringement of the '948 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C § 271(b).

23. Huawei has indirectly infringed and continues to indirectly infringe at least Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of the '948 Patent, by among other things, contributing to the direct infringement by others, including without limitation enterprise customers of its eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution, by making, offering to sell, or selling, in the United States, and/or importing a component of a patented machine, manufacture, or combination, or an apparatus for use in practicing a patent process, constituting a material part of the invention, knowing the same to be especially made or especially adapted for use in infringement of the '948 Patent, and not a staple article or commodity of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

24. For example, the eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Software module that allows enterprise clients to initiate a conference call from a group instant message window is a component of a patented machine, manufacture, or combination, or an apparatus for use in practicing a patented process. Furthermore, such software module is a material part of the invention and upon information and belief is not a staple article or commodity of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use. Thus, Huawei is liable for infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C § 271(c).

25. Huawei will have been on notice of the '948 Patent since, at the latest, the service of this complaint. By the time of trial, Huawei will thus have known and intended (since receiving such notice), that its continued actions would actively induce and contribute to actual infringement of at least Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of the '948 Patent.

26. Uniloc has been damaged, reparably and irreparably, by Huawei's infringement of the '948 Patent and such damage will continue unless and until Huawei is enjoined.

(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,853,000)

27. Uniloc incorporates paragraphs 1-26 above by reference.

28. Uniloc Luxembourg is the owner, by assignment, of U.S. Patent No. 7,853,000 ("the '000 Patent"), entitled SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR INITIATING A CONFERENCE CALL that issued on December 14, 2010. A true and correct copy of the '000 Patent is attached as Exhibit B hereto.

29. Uniloc USA is the exclusive licensee of the '000 Patent with ownership of all substantial rights therein, including the right to grant sublicenses, to exclude others, and to enforce, sue and recover past damages for the infringement thereof.

Huawei's enterprise customers who purchase systems and components thereof and operate such systems and components in accordance with Huawei's instructions directly infringe one or more of the above referenced claims of the '000 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C § 271.

33. Huawei instructs its customers in the use of the eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution through live and web demonstrations, training videos, brochures and administration, maintenance, installation and user guides, such as those located at the following:

Huawei is thereby liable for infringement of the '000 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C § 271(b).

34. Huawei has indirectly infringed and continues to indirectly infringe at least Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23 of the '000 Patent, by among other things, contributing to the direct infringement of others, including without limitation customers of its eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution, by making, offering to sell, or selling, in the United States, or importing a component of a patented machine, manufacture, or combination, or an apparatus for use in practicing a patent process, constituting a material part of the invention, knowing the same to be especially made or especially adapted for use in infringement of the '000 Patent, and not a staple article or commodity of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use.

35. 37. Uniloc has been damaged, reparably and irreparably, by Huawei's infringement of the '000 Patent and such damage will continue unless and until Huawei is enjoined.

COUNT III
(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 8,571,194)

38. Uniloc incorporates paragraphs 1-37 above by reference.

39. Uniloc Luxembourg is the owner, by assignment, of U.S. Patent No. 8,571,194 (“the ‘194 Patent”), entitled SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR INITIATING A CONFERENCE CALL that issued on October 29, 2013. A true and correct copy of the ‘194 Patent is attached as Exhibit C hereto.

40. Uniloc USA is the exclusive licensee of the ‘194 Patent with ownership of all substantial rights therein, including the right to grant sublicenses, to exclude others, and to enforce, sue and recover past damages for the infringement thereof.

41. Huawei has directly infringed, and continues to directly infringe one or more claims of the ‘194 Patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas, including at least Claim 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by or through making, testing, using, importing, offering for sale and/or selling its eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution, including without limitation, Huawei eSpace UC Solution V2.3 or equivalent, operating with eSpace Desktop or eSpace Mobile (HD), Huawei Service Servers, eSpace Enhanced Communications Suite, eServer, MAA, Meeting MS, UM Server, Unified Gateway and/or other Huawei hardware or software used to enable Huawei’s UC Solutions instant messaging and conference call functionality.

42. Uniloc reserves the right to discover and pursue all such additional infringement of the ‘194 Patent. For the avoidance of doubt, the Huawei eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution is identified for exemplary purposes and in no way limits the discovery and infringement allegations against Huawei concerning other hardware/software that incorporates the same or reasonably similar instant messaging and conference call functionality.

43. In addition, should Huawei's products be found to not literally infringe the asserted claims of the '194 Patent, Huawei's products would nevertheless infringe the asserted claims of the '194 Patent. More specifically, the Huawei accused products perform substantially the same function (contains instructions for implementing an instant message to voice call capability), in substantially the same way (comprising computer readable instructions contained or loaded into non-transitory memory), to yield substantially the same result (effecting an instant message to voice conference call). Huawei would thus be liable for direct infringement under the doctrine of equivalents.

44. Huawei has indirectly infringed and continues to indirectly infringe at least Claims 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of the '194 Patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, actively inducing the using, offering for sale, selling, or importation of at least Huawei's eSpace Unified Communications (UC) Solution. Huawei's customers who purchase systems and components thereof and operate such systems and components in accordance with Huawei's instructions directly infringe one or more claims of the '194 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C § 271.

46. Furthermore, such software module is a material part of the invention, and upon information and belief, is not a staple article or commodity of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use. Thus, Huawei is liable for infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C § 271(c).

48. Huawei will have been on notice of the '194 Patent since, at the latest, the service of this complaint. By the time of trial, Huawei will thus have known and intended (since receiving such notice), that its continued actions would actively induce and contribute to actual infringement of at least Claims 1, 2, 3,4, and 5 of the '194 Patent.

49. Uniloc has been damaged, reparably and irreparably, by Huawei's infringement of the '194 Patent and such damage will continue unless and until Huawei is enjoined.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Uniloc requests that the Court enter judgment against Huawei as follows:

- (A) that Huawei has infringed the '948 Patent, the '000 Patent and the '194 Patent;
- (B) awarding Uniloc its damages suffered as a result of Huawei's infringement of the '948 Patent, the '000 Patent and the '194 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- (C) enjoining Huawei, its officers, directors, agents, servants, affiliates, employees, divisions, branches, subsidiaries and parents, and all others acting in concert or privity with it from infringing the '948 Patent, the '000 Patent and the '194 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283;
- (D) awarding Uniloc its costs, attorneys' fees, expenses and interest, and
- (E) granting Uniloc such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
